

K-1-2 Family Reading Night

Rick Marcotte Elementary School • Wednesday, April 17 – 6:30-7:30pm

February, 2019

Dear Families,

The Rick Marcotte Central School library is pleased to invite your participation in Family Reading Night, thanks to the generosity of a grant from our PTO. This is an opportunity for you to share a book with your child (and perhaps with your entire family), then gather together to discuss the book with other families during a special evening here at school.

Books will be provided through the library to any family who submits the contract attached to this letter. Participating families will read one of the books together and then attend a book discussion during the evening of April 17. Families will gather in small groups to talk about the book with others who have read the same one. This event is geared to Kindergarten, 1st and 2nd graders, but older and younger children in your family can participate with your family as well.

The schedule for the evening is:

6:30 Meet at the school for light refreshments

6:50 – 7:20 Book discussion groups

7:20 – 7:30 Meet in the library for closing and feedback.

Students will preview the books during library class on February 18 & 19 (Kulhowick, Keliher, Scott, Ransom) and March 6, 7, and 8 (Carpenter/Brown, Miller, Demag, Pecor, Belisle, Hockenbury). Books will be sent home at the end of March once we receive your contract.

If you would like to participate, please read and fill out the attached form with your child, indicate your first and second choice (we will need at least 2-3 families per book), and sign the form. Please return these forms to the library by Thursday, March 14 so that books can be ordered and sent home by the end of March. I hope that your family will enjoy the time spent together reading and talking about your book, and I look forward to seeing you on our book discussion night.

Sincerely,

Colleen Springer, RMCS Librarian
